

Last Stop on Market Street

by

Matt de la Peña & Christian Robinson

Just For Fun Rating (0-5): □□□□□ Age Range: 3-5 years

Diversity Themes: Race/Ethnicity; Class/Socioeconomic Status; Body Diversity; Self-Expression; Ability/Disability; Age: Religion; Neighborhood Diversity

Potential Questions/Comments:

1. CJ is leaving church at the beginning of the book. Do you go to church? Where else do people go to worship?
2. CJ's friend has light skin & drives home with his daddy. CJ has dark skin & takes the bus with his nana.
3. On the bus, there is a man with pictures on his body. What are those? What are they for?
4. Do we/you know anyone who cannot see or cannot walk?
5. What is a soup kitchen? Why do people go there?
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

Continuing the Conversation

Talk about what you see when you are on a journey with your child. As they get older, say more about soup kitchens and what circumstances lead people to rely on them. Discuss society's willingness to care for/accommodate people with disabilities. Many people have tattoos; why are some considered to be acceptable while others are intimidating or scary. Is this accurate?

